BUSINESSNEXT recognised amongst 'BEST ORGANIZATIONS FOR WOMEN 2023'

Mumbai, March 28, 2023: BUSINESSNEXT, a universe of composable enterprise solutions to banks and financial services has been recognised as the 'Best Organizations For Women 2023' at its 3rd edition hosted by The Economic Times and powered by Femina on 24th March in Mumbai. BUSINESSNEXT was felicitated at the star-studded event where Mrs. Tamilisai Soundararajan, Hon'ble governor of Telangana & Hon'ble Lt. Governor of Puducherry was the Guest of Honour. The event themed 'Building the Power of Parity' was graced by Guneet Monga, Oscar winning Indian film producer & Co-founder of Sikhaya Entertainment, M.C Mary Kom, Indian Boxer & Politician, Nandita Das, Actor & Director and Nandita Nagangoudar, first civilian woman to climb Mt. Everest amongst many top women in the corporate world and successful women entrepreneurs. The Economic Times also unveiled the cover of the Coffee Table Book "The Economic Times Best Organisations for Women 2023" that will feature the felicitated organisations and their journey. The event witnessed multiple panel discussions and fire side chats that focused on various organisational approaches to achieve DEI goals, deliberated upon ways to make place for diversity in the boardroom, and exchanged views on role of male champions for achieving DEI and strengthening the workplace dynamics.

Receiving the coveted recognition, Lipika Mohanty, Director – People & Development at BUSINESSNEXT, said, "We are extremely delighted on being recognised amongst the 'Best Organizations for Women' as it validates our focused efforts and commitment towards organisational DEI goals. Empowering and supporting women is not just a business case but also a significant yardstick for ushering in the era of equity in the society. I feel extremely humbled to state that BUSINESSNEXT has been taking steps in the direction, of creating a culture of equity that ensures every individual can thrive and succeed with no holds barred."
